INTRODUCTION

Faculty of Education

The Faculty of Education of the University of Delhi, also known as Central Institute of Education (CIE), is one of the first major institutions of professional learning and research in Education that was established immediately after independence. The first Prime Minister of India, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and the first Education Minister, Maulana Abul Kalam Azad took considerable interest in the establishment of this institution in 1947 and its progress in its early years. Maulana Azad visualized the function of CIE not merely to 'turn out teachers who will be a 'model teacher', but to evolve into 'a research centre for solving new educational problems of the country'. Over the past few decades, CIE has grown into a pace-setting institution in Teacher Education and Research in Education. Recognized as the Institute of Advance Studies in Education (IASE) and having launched the Maulana Azad Centre for Elementary and Social Education (MACESE), CIE has shaped its unique philosophy which finds reflection in all its academic programmes.

The Faculty of Education offers various academic and professional programmes:

- A full-time professional teacher education programme of the duration of two academic years, after graduate or post-graduate studies, leading to a Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.) Degree. This programme is offered, at present, at Department of Education (CIE), 33 Chhatra Marg, University of Delhi, Delhi 110007, Maharshi Valmiki College of Education (MVCE), Geeta Colony, Delhi 110031 and Shyama Prasad Mukherji College for Women (SPMC), West Punjabi Bagh, New Delhi 110026.
- A full-time professional programme of four years, after 12 years of schooling, in elementary teacher education, leading to a Bachelor of Elementary Education (B.El.Ed.) Degree. This programme is offered at eight affiliated colleges of the University of Delhi.
- A full-time advanced programme in Education, of the duration of two academic years, leading to a Master of Education (M.Ed.) Degree.
- A full-time pre-doctoral research programme of one calendar year and a part-time programme for duration of 18 months for teachers and other educational practitioners, leading to the degree of Master of Philosophy - M.Phil. (Education).
- A doctoral research programme leading to Doctor of Philosophy - Ph.D. (Education).
- In-service programmes for teachers and other educational practitioners are also offered by CIE.

Maharshi Valmiki College of Education

Maharshi Valmiki College of Education was established in the year 1995 by the Govt of NCT of Delhi as a Constituent College of University of Delhi to cater to the long standing need for providing avenues for pre-service elementary and secondary teacher education programmes for the aspiring students in Delhi. Initially known as College of Education, the college assumed its present name Maharshi Valmiki College of Education in the year 1997 drawing inspiration from the high ideals of the great teacher Valmiki.

Marking a humble beginning with its Bachelor of Education programme with only 38 students from the Humanities and Social Science categories in 1995, the college got initiated into the process of shaping its promising profile under the inspirational leadership of the philosopher, artist and teacher late Professor R.P. Sharma, Former Head & Dean, Faculty of Education, University of Delhi, who took over as its Founder Principal (Officer on Special Duty) on 21 September 1995. The college was formally inaugurated by Sh. Madan Lal Khurana, the then Chief Minister of Delhi on 16 November 1995.

With a team of committed teachers on its faculty, the college presently has all the facilities needed for imparting quality teacher education programme. A well established library with adequate space and more than 7500 titles committed to education, equally well established physics, chemistry, biology and computer labs, resource centre with good facilities and adequate space for all other indoor and outdoor needs, the college has been very seriously focussing on instilling quality and bringing diversity in the scope of its pre-service teacher education programme.

Shyama Prasad Mukherji College for Women

Shyama Prasad Mukherji College strives for developing an all round personality in all the students. The aim of the college is to facilitate positive thinking and course of conviction in the young women to enable them to take on the different challenges of the modern world. This is a multidisciplinary college established in 1969. The college has a spacious building with sprawling lawn & plan grounds and boasts of state of the art infrastructure. It has a well stocked library with an enviable collection of books & journals. There is a fully air conditioned auditorium with a seating capacity of 1200. Along with these it has a medical room a canteen and two fully equipped computer labs. There are many study centres liked Buddhist Study Centre, Guru Nanak & Gandhian Study Centre established by the U.G.C. under the program, 'EPOCH-making Philosophers of India. These centres organize talks / lectures from time to time. Shyama Prasad Mukherji College has a Family Counselling Centre which provides counseling, referral & rehabilitation services to students to help them develop better coping skills. Every year, a highly active students Union organizes various Cultural feats like Srijan. Prizes and Scholarships are awarded to meritorious and outstanding students on the basis on the examination results and their all round performance.
