INSTRUCTIONAL SYSTEM

The University follows the instruction in regular workshops as well as the multimedia approach of instruction.

The University follows the multimedia approach of instruction, which comprises:

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1) Self-instructional printed course material | 6) Tele-Lessons through Doordarshan (DD-8) |
| 2) Assignments for assessment and feedback | Sapthagiri Channel. |
| 3) Audio-video programmes | 7) Tele-conference with two-way audio and one |
| 4) CDs | way video through Doordarshan (DD-8) |
| 5) Radio Lessons Broadcast | 8) Workshops |

➤ Self-instructional Printed Material: The printed self-instructional study material for both theory and practical components of the programme is supplied to the learners in the form of books for every course.

➤ Audio-visual Material: The learning package contains audio and video cassettes, for better clarification and enhancement of understanding of the course material given to the learner. A video programme is normally of 25-30 minutes duration. The audio and video cassettes are listened to and screened at the programme Centres respectively, during specific sessions, which are duly notified for the benefit of the learners.

In addition to learning support at the Programme Centre, the video programmes are telecast on National Network of Doordarshan. Selected stations of All India also broadcast the audio programmes. Learners can confirm the dates for the programmes from their Programme Centres. The information is also provided through the OPVARSITY News, Newsletters sent to the learners periodically.

➤ Teleconferencing: Live sessions are conducted via satellite through interactive Doordarshan Channel. The schedule of these teleconferences is made available at the programme Centres.

➤ Workshops: 36/24 days in a year are allotted for workshops. The workshops have been scheduled in three phases during the Vijayadasami, Sankranthi and Summer vacations. Attendance during the workshops is compulsory.
