

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What is the academic eligibility to apply for Integrated 5 year LL.B Entrance Examination conducted by CEE Kerala ?

Candidate should have passed 10+2 examination/ Higher Secondary Examination recognised by Central or State Government with minimum of 45% marks, if they belong to general or SEBC category. However, candidates belonging to SC/ST category need only 40% marks in the qualifying examination.

Candidates who have appeared for their +2 examination and awaiting results are also eligible to apply, on the condition that they have to produce their pass certificate and original mark list of the qualifying examination at the time of admission.

Candidates who have passed their qualifying examination from other State Boards are required to furnish 'Eligibility Certificate' from a University in Kerala, at the time of admission.

2. Is there any age limit for admission to Integrated 5 Year LL.B Course 2015-16?

Yes. The minimum age limit for applying for Integrated 5 Year LL.B entrance examination is 17 years as on 31.12.2015. There is no upper age limit for admission to the Integrated 5 Year LL.B course 2015-16.

3. In my knowledge there is no upper age limit for admission to Integrated 5 Year LL.B Course. Am I right?

Yes (see clause 6(iii) of the prospectus)

4. I am 40 years of age, and keen to study law? Can I apply for Integrated 5 Year LL.B Course?

Yes.

5. I am a candidate belonging to SEBC community. What documents should I enclose with the application for claiming community reservation?

You are required to enclose a Non Creamy Layer certificate obtained from the village officer/Tahsildar in the prescribed format, which you can download from the CEE website. The above certificates in original should be enclosed with the application.

6. What documents should a candidate belonging to SC/ST community submit for claiming community reservation? Is there any upper income limit for being eligible for communal reservation?

A candidate belonging to SC/ST community should submit community certificate obtained from the Tahsildar in the prescribed format downloadable from the CEE website. There is no limit on annual income for SC/ST category for claiming communal reservation. Hence, they need not submit income certificate.

7. I am a child of an intercaste married couple. My father belongs to forward community and my mother belongs to SEBC category. Am I eligible for claiming SEBC reservation? If so, what should I do to claim the benefit?

Yes, you are eligible for claiming reservation under SEBC category. For this, you have to enclose a Non Creamy Layer certificate from the Village Officer or Tahsildar, in the prescribed format (Annexure V of the Prospectus) that you can download from the CEE website. Further, you have to express your choice of community in the online application.

8. I am a child of an intercaste married couple. My father belongs to forward community and my mother belongs to SC/ST category. Am I eligible for claiming SC/ST reservation? If so, what should I do to claim the benefit?

Yes, you are eligible for claiming reservation under SC/ST category. For this, you have to enclose intercaste marriage certificate from the Tahsildar. In addition, you also have to enclose Community Certificate from the Tahsildar showing that you are SC/ST. Both the certificates should be obtained in the prescribed format that you can download from the CEE website. The certificates in original should be enclosed with the application.

9. I intend to apply for Integrated 5 Year LL.B Course in sports quota. What should I do?

You have to submit formal application (both online and print out) to the CEE as per the instructions contained in the prospectus for the year 2015. Further, you have to forward a photocopy of the application with relevant documents to the Secretary, Kerala State Sports Council, Thiruvananthapuram - 695001, before the last date of submission of application.

10. Is there special reservation for NCC for Integrated 5 Year LL.B Course?

No.

11. I am an SC converted to Christianity. Am I eligible for SC seat reservation?

No. However, you are eligible for reservation under Backward Christian and OEC categories.

12. I am a candidate belonging to Dheevera community (Example), If I got admission in general merit, am I eligible for fee concession?

Yes. You are eligible for fee concession as applicable to OEC candidates.

13. I am a candidate belonging to SC community, but my annual family income exceeds Rs.6.00 lakhs. Am I eligible for SC reservation?

Yes. There is no income limit for SC/ST candidates.

14. Should I be a native of Kerala to be eligible to apply for Integrated 5 Year LL.B Course?

No. Any Indian citizen fulfilling the eligibility conditions laid down in Clause 6 of the prospectus for the year 2015 can apply.

15. What are the points to be taken care of regarding online uploading of photo and pasting of photo on the print out of application?

The candidate has to upload his/her latest passport size colour photograph (studio taken) with light background, in jpg format. The size should not be more than 30 kb and dimensions 150 pixels (width) X 200 pixels (height).

A studio print of the uploaded photograph should be pasted on the print out of the application, which should be attested by the Principal of the institution last studied or by a Gazetted Officer.

The photograph should be clear and should not be taken with the candidate wearing cap or goggles. Spectacles are allowed, if being used regularly. Polaroid and computer/mobile phone generated photos are not acceptable. Non-compliance of these instructions may lead to rejection of application.

16. I had qualified in the Integrated 5 Year LL.B entrance examination held in 2014, but did not get admission. Will I be considered for 2015 allotment?

No. You have to write the 2015 entrance examination and qualify in it for being considered for 2015 allotment.
