Candidates trying to use unfair means shall be disqualified from the admission. No correspondence whatsoever will be entertained from the candidates.

The RUHS / Admission Board reserves the right to create cities / centre(s) for RCA Nursing 2024 and also to call the candidates for the RCA Nursing 2024 at any city / centre, other than the one mentioned in the information booklet.

CHOICE FILLING FOR COLLEGES AND SUBJECTS

After appearing in the entrance examination, to participate in the counselling process, candidates will be required to fill choices of the subject and college (in order of preference) by paying INR 550 (five hundred and fifty) as counselling fee (non-refundable). Guidelines for filling the choices and making on-line payment of counselling fee will be available at the website in due course.

ADMISISON PROCEDURE

The admissions shall be made strictly in accordance with merit list prepared on the basis of score of the admission test and the order of choices / options filled in by the candidates in the on-line application form. The candidates are advised to exercise their choices / options very carefully.

For the entrance test, separate instructions / guidelines will be provided to the candidates through newspapers / website etc. RUHS reserves the right to decide about mode of admission. The decision of RUHS/Nursing Counseling Board shall be final and binding to all. Candidates are advised to secure information regarding the admission from the website of RUHS (www.ruhsraj.org).

Important to note: If at any stage, it is found that a non-eligible candidate is admitted to a course, then the admission of such a candidate will be cancelled on such detection. A penal action may also be initiated against such candidate.

Allotment of college and course

The allotment of college and course shall be made by strictly following the order of merit, seats available in each college and the priority of choice/option of the college and the course filled in by the candidate in the on-line application form.

Candidates securing equal score in the admission test will be admitted in the following order of preference:

1. One who has passed B.Sc Nursing examination in less number of attempts.
2. The candidate of higher age (older candidate).
3. One who has obtained higher total marks in Senior Secondary examination (10+2) or its equivalent examination.

After allotment of college and course, candidates will be informed about their allotment at RUHS website. Candidate is required to take a printout of the allotment letter / information and join at the allotted college with this printout alongwith requisite documents, in original, and prescribed fee, by the notified date.

The non-viewing of the RUHS website about allotment information by the candidate shall not be accepted as a ground for not submitting the option form or non-joining at the allotted college on the scheduled time and date. The candidate's allotment will stand automatically cancelled if he/she does not join IN PERSON to the allotted college as per notified schedule.

Joining at allotted college and depositing of fees & other documents

At the time of joining at the allotted college, the candidate will have to carry printout of the allotment letter. The candidate is required to deposit the prescribed fee along with original and one set of attested photocopies of requisite documents.

The colleges shall be provided the list of candidates allotted. The colleges shall verify the credentials of the candidates as per this list and check the documents and other required certificates with originals.

Conditions relating to bond (applicable for Government colleges/Government self-financed college)

In consonance with Govt. of Rajasthan letter no. P7(3) Nursing/DME/2014, dated 13.10.2020, the candidates allotted a seat in Government colleges/Government self-financed colleges will have to submit a bond in prescribed proforma amounting to Rs. 50,000 (Rupees fifty thousand). If the candidate leaves the course after second round of counseling (before completion of the course) due to any circumstances then such a candidate will have to pay Rs. 50,000 as penalty. Refer Appendix B for Proforma of the Bond.

Admissions on the vacant seats, drop-out seats

After 2 rounds of on-line counseling, if seats remain vacant either due to exhaustion of the merit list or due to non-joining of candidates at the allotted college, RUHS Admission / Counseling Board reserves the right to take appropriate decision to fill the seats remaining vacant.

It is clarified that colleges shall not fill any seat directly at their own level.

No admission shall be made after the date as may be notified by RUHS / Admission Board.

The admissions shall be treated as provisional subject to the final decision of any pending case(s) in any court of law, if applicable to these admissions. Further, the provisional status of admission shall be confirmed only after enrolment by the RUHS after document verification at the level of RUHS (documents as submitted by the candidate).

Any circumstances-based decision relating to the admission / counseling process may be taken by the Chairman E & R Cell, RUHS or Chairman Admission / Counseling Board, RUHS which shall be final and binding on all concerned.

The decision of the admission board shall be final and binding to all.

All the judgments relevant to these admissions, passed by any Hon'ble court of justice as well as rules existing at the time of making admissions will be applicable on these admissions and the candidates will have to abide compulsorily with such judgments, rules and the changes.

The apex court drew guidelines for the management of all educational institutions to follow. Among them:

Educational institutions should take anti-ragging measures right from the time of advertisement for admissions. The prospectus, the form for admission and/or any other literature issued to aspirants for admission must clearly mention that ragging is banned in the institution and anyone indulging in it is likely to be punished appropriately which may include expulsion from the institution, suspension from the institution or classes for a limited period or fine with a public apology.

The punishment may also take the shape of: (i) withholding scholarships or other benefits (ii) debarring from representation in events (iii) withholding results (iv) suspension or expulsion from hostel or mess. If there be any legislation governing ragging or any provisions in statute/ordinance, it should be brought to the notice of the students/parents seeking admissions. A printed leaflet detailing when and to whom a victim may turn for information, help and guidance for various purposes, keeping in view the needs of new entrants, along with their addresses and telephone numbers should be given to fresher at the time of admissions so that they need not to look to seniors for help in such matters.
